	9/5/2001 Shri Ramakant Mishra, learned counsel for the petitioner. Dr. N.K. Shukla, learned Dy.A.G. for the State. Heard. The petitioner while posted at Jagdalpur was allotted a residential quarter, but on his transfer from Jagdalpur to he Rewa, was required to vacate the premises. The petitioner instead of immediately vacating the premises, made an application to the concerned officer that he would vacate the premises latest by the end of May, 2000. It appears that thereafter he did not vacate the house, but taking advantage of the re-transfer from Rewa to Jagdalpur, continued to remain in possession of the house and made an application stating that he is entitled to continue to occupy the house. His original application filed by the present petitioner was dismissed by the State Administrative Tribunal, thereafter, he has come to this Court. After hearing the learned counsel for the petitioner, we are unable to concede to the arguments of the learned counsel that because of his re-transfer from Rewa to Jagdalpur, he is entitled to occupy the house. The allotment

The petitioner is free to make an application to the Authorities that in view of his re-transfer from Rewa to Jagdalpur, the very house be allotted to him. On the facts, we are unable to make any interference in this petition. It is accordingly dismissed. Certified copy today. Sd/- Chief Justice	Sd/- R.S. Garg Judge
